

Republican Oppose Adjournment of Congress.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Republicans of the House to adjourn today, declined to accept the legislative program sponsored by the Democratic steering committee with a view to adjournment of Congress before Sept. 1. Those who were inclined to agree were outvoted by a majority of 200 to 100 on the adjournment bill at this session.

Alkali in Soap Bad For the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary neutralized coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get neutralized coconut oil at any pharmacy; it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Adv.

FIRE DAMAGES MARIA'S; TWO FIREMEN INJURED, OTHERS RESCUE WOMAN

Famous Bohemian Restaurant Hard to Save Because of Torn Up Streets.

Maria's, dear to the hearts of hundreds of New Yorkers who enjoy the life of the Bohemian, barely escaped destruction by fire at 245 o'clock this morning. Damage of $5,000 had been caused before the blaze was extinguished.

The men of Hook and Ladder Company No. 12 were the first to answer the alarm. Their automobile fire truck was stalled when they attempted to cross Seventh Avenue at West Twentieth Street, due to the work on the new subway. Undaunted, they shouldered ladders, axes and other paraphernalia and started on foot for the fire, at Nos. 128 and 130 West Twentieth Street.

Fireman Edward B. Casson, who was the first to find his feet after all had been thrown from the truck, led the race for the scene of the fire. He was followed closely by Charles Gilbride, a member of the same company. As they neared the building they discovered at a third-story window a woman frantically waving her hands and calling for help. She was not able to get to the fire-escape, which reached only to the window of the story below.

The two firemen, without ladders, climbed the porch posts to the third story of an adjoining building, and from the fire-escape there bridged the space between the buildings with their bodies and carried the frightened woman to the street.

Mrs. Beatie Cutler, the rescued woman, carried with her money and jewelry also said were worth $5,000.

While the work of rescue was going on Capt. Bostachon of Engine Company No. 19 was directing the work of fighting the blaze. As they were fighting their way up the stairway all were knocked down by a fire back from the fire from the floor above. Frederick Wolbert and Henry Haverstron, both of No. 19, were severely cut about the wrists by flying glass from broken windows.

BELMONT WON'T LET WEDDING INTERFERE WITH SOLDIERING

Going to Plattsburg and Will Announce Engagement to Miss Hulbert Later.

Before leaving the Vanderbilt Hotel today for Narragansett Pier to play a polo match, Raymond Belmont, son of August Belmont, told an Evening World reporter that he would make an announcement in a short time, which would end all speculation as to whether he is to take unto himself a second wife.

An hour after the young sportsman left the hotel, Miss Carolyn Hulbert, to whom he is reported engaged, and her mother, Mrs. E. J. Hulbert, went on a shopping tour. She told reporters in the lobby of the Vanderbilt, where she has a suite just above Belmont's apartment, that there would be an announcement from Mr. Belmont perhaps in a week.

The only stumbling block in the way of making an engagement announcement at this time it was stated by acquaintances of both Belmont and Miss Hulbert, is August Belmont, who, it is said, asked his son to first pass a month with the cookies at Plattsburg. From Narragansett Pier Raymond will go to Plattsburg tomorrow. When the announcement is made it is understood Morgan Belmont, his recently married brother, will send out formal notices.

Mrs. Hulbert beamed when she addressed the reporters, but would not let her daughter approach within six feet of the newspaper men. The young lady is a charming, dark brown-eyed type of Southern beauty, with dark hair and girlish figure. She is an accomplished horsewoman, as is also her mother, who owns a string of horses at Middleburg, Va., where Raymond passed a month or so during the final phase of his domestic troubles with Ethel Lorraine Belmont, his former showgirl wife. Raymond breakfasted alone in the grill of the Vanderbilt, but had goodby to Miss Hulbert and her mother before taking the 10 o'clock train for Narragansett. He was in very jovial mood when an Evening World man spoke to him at the baggage porter's desk.

"Really this is not the time to make the announcement," the young man said. "I am going to be a soldier and I don't want anything to interfere with my plans. There'll be an announcement maybe while I am at Plattsburg or perhaps before I'm going to play polo this afternoon and go on to Plattsburg tomorrow."

Belmont and the Hulberts returned together yesterday afternoon from Newport. Mrs. Hulbert and her daughter had planned to go to Westbury, L. I., where the summer home of the Belmonts is located, but the premature announcement of the engagement caused them to change their plans.
